For the icing
<B>
Icing sugar ... 25g
Water ... 2.5g(½ tsp)

When making custom bread…

Keep the combined weight of dough and filling to 600 g or less!
• Too much filling may prevent the bread from rising or baking through.

Avoid fillings with a high moisture content! (Reduce their moisture by simmering, for example, and let them cool to room temperature.)
• They affect dough fermentation.

Prepare the filling in advance!
• You have 15 minutes to work.

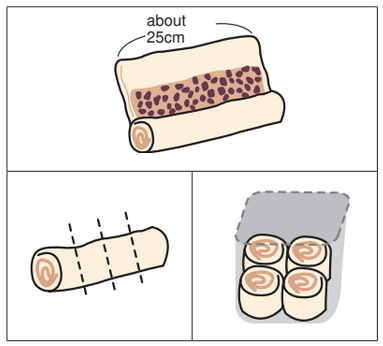
Method

1 Make the dough using Program 17
① Fit the kneading blade in the bread pan, add A, and place the pan in the machine.
② Put the dry yeast in the yeast dispenser, select Program 17 and press Start.

2 Remove the dough (finish the work within 15 minutes!)
① When the machine beeps, open the lid, remove the dough from the bread pan, and remove the kneading blade.
• Do not press Cancel.

3 Roll out
① Roll the dough into a rectangle about 15 cm deep × 25 cm wide.

4 Shape
① Brush the nearest three-quarters of the dough with milk. Sprinkle with cinnamon sugar and scatter over the dried fruit.
② Roll up from the edge nearest you.
③ Cut into four equal lengths and place in the bread pan.



5 Bake
(Press Start again.)

6 Make the icing
① Put B in a bowl and stir over a 60°C water bath to make the icing.

7 Finish
① When baked, remove the bread from the pan and drizzle with icing.

Program 17: Custom bread

Sweet bean bread

Ingredients

1148kcal(one item)

<A>
Bread flour ... 180g
Butter ... 15g
Sugar ... 17g(2 large spoons)
Skim milk powder ... 6g(1 large spoon)
Salt ... 2.5g(½ small spoon)
Egg, beaten ... 25g(½ medium egg)
Cold water (5°C) * ... 110g(mL)

Dry yeast ... 2.1g(¾ small spoon)
Sweet bean paste (at about 20°C) ... 100g
* At room temperatures of 25°C or above, reduce the amount by 10 g (mL).
• More bean paste will reduce the rise (maximum 150 g). Always keep the paste at about 20°C, as its temperature affects fermentation.
• A gap forms between the dough and the paste because the bread dough expands as it rises.

Method

1 Make the dough using Program 17
① Fit the kneading blade in the bread pan, add A, and place the pan in the machine.
② Put the dry yeast in the yeast dispenser, select Program 17 and press Start.

2 Remove the dough (finish the work within 15 minutes!)
① When the machine beeps, open the lid, remove the dough from the bread pan, and remove the kneading blade.
• Do not press Cancel.

3 Roll out
① Roll the dough into a long rectangle (about 8 cm × 30 cm). Keep it narrower than the bread pan.

4 Add the filling and shape
① Spread the sweet bean paste evenly over the dough, leaving a border of about 1 cm to prevent it from spilling over.
② Roll up from the edge nearest you without trapping air, and seal the seam firmly.
③ Place in the bread pan, seam-side down.

5 Bake
(Press Start again.)

Q What if the dough is sticky and difficult to roll out?

A Dust your hands and rolling pin with bread flour to make rolling easier.

Rice-flour bread has a pleasantly chewy texture and pairs beautifully with Japanese ingredients. Enjoy experimenting with your own choice of additions.

Beaten egg for glazing: as needed

Filling for pains aux raisins
Raisins: 30 g

Custard
Milk: 250 g(about 250mL)
Egg yolk: 2 pieces
Sugar: 75 g

2 Make the custard buns
1 Divide one half into 6 pieces with a dough scraper. Place on a cloth-lined board and cover with a plastic bag. Rest at room temperature for about 20 minutes, until evenly warmed and soft.
2 Round each piece to make the surface taut. Pinch the bottom firmly closed. Leave at room temperature until pressing with a finger leaves a slight indentation.
3 Place seam-side up and press with your palm to release the gas. Roll out to a circle about 10 cm across.
4 Place custard on the dough. Bring the centres of the two opposite edges together, then seal firmly around the outside.
5 Make three cuts from the sealed edge. Prove at 30-35°C for 50-70 minutes. Guide: a light finger press should leave a slight indentation.
6 Brush with beaten egg and bake in a preheated oven at 180-200°C for about 10 minutes.

3 Make the pains aux raisins
1 Flatten the other half with your palm and roll into a square about 20 × 20 cm.
2 Brush off excess flour. Place smooth-side down. Roll the 2 cm strip along the near edge thinner.
3 Spread custard over the dough, leaving the thin strip clear. Scatter with raisins and brush the thin strip with water.
4 Gradually roll from the far edge towards you. Seal the final edge firmly.
5 Roll gently to make the log an even thickness. Cut into 6 with a dough scraper and shape. Place in foil baking cases and press down to an even height.
6 Prove at 30-35°C for 30-50 minutes. Guide: a light finger press should leave a slight indentation.
7 Brush with beaten egg and bake in a preheated oven at 180-200°C for about 14 minutes.

Making the custard
1 Heat the milk in a saucepan until just below boiling.
2 Whisk the egg yolks in a bowl. Add the sugar and whisk until pale.
3 Lightly mix in the cake flour. Gradually add the hot milk to loosen the mixture.
4 Strain back into the saucepan.
5 Cook over medium heat, stirring continuously with a wooden spoon to prevent scorching.
6 When glossy and loose enough to drip from the spoon, remove from the heat and add the vanilla essence.
7 Spread in a tray, cover with cling film to prevent the surface drying, and cool.

Recipes Using Japanese Wheat

Use high-protein Japanese bread flour (11% or more).
Commercially available Japanese wheat flour gives a chewy, springy texture.

• Bread may rise less than bread made with Nisshin Seifun Welna “Camellia”. If the baked bread is at least 10 cm high (7 cm for quick bread), there is no problem.
• Results may vary with the flour brand (variety) and harvest year.
